

The School of Celtic Studies is able to offer a scholarship to be taken up in January 2019. Applicants will normally hold a doctoral degree prior to taking up the scholarship. A full CV together with an outline of the research which the applicant proposes to undertake (maximum of 1000 words), should be sent to:

Ms Eibhlín Nic Dhonncha,
School Administrator,
School of Celtic Studies,
Dublin Institute for Advanced Studies,
10 Burlington Road,
Dublin 4,
IRELAND.
email: eibhlin@celt.dias.ie

To be returned not later than 30 September 2018.

The applicant should also ensure that references from at least two referees who are qualified to testify as to her/his ability to carry out original research are also sent to the School Administrator by the above date.

Scholarship stipends currently are €25,000 per annum for scholars who hold a doctorate.

Conditions of Scholarship

Scholars are expected to reside in Dublin, to attend regularly at the Institute and to participate fully in all activities in the School of Celtic Studies – seminars, lectures and conferences. The maximum tenure is three years, reviewed on an annual basis.
