

CALL FOR PAPERS, 41st California Celtic Conference

The 41st California Celtic Conference will be held at the University of California, Berkeley, March 14-17 2019.

Abstracts are invited on subjects including:

Celtic cultures (ancient or modern, pop or high, in the Celtic realms or diaspora)

Celtic literatures (in Celtic languages or in English, French, Latin...)

Celtic languages (structure, history, documentation, teaching, endangerment and revitalization)

Celtic folklore and ethnography

History and archeology of Celtic regions and nations

Past conferences have included papers from disciplines including literary studies, history, anthropology, folklore, archeology, geography, cultural studies, linguistics, music, and more. We welcome work on the contact interfaces between Celtic and neighboring languages and cultures, and on Digital Humanities work in Celtic areas.

Abstracts should be sent by NOV 26, 2018 to Eve Sweetser, sweetser@berkeley.edu. Limit of 500 words.
